

Parent Agreement

As a parent of a JLYSSL player I agree to:

- Support my player, their teammates, and their coach's efforts.
- Get my player to matches, practices, and training sessions on time, with water, shin guards and appropriate attire.
- Respect the opponent players, coaches, fans, and game officials.
- Cheer encouragement to my player and teammates, but not instructions.
- Avoid confrontation with and yelling at game officials, coaches, and opposing team parents and players. I agree to refrain from all unsporting behavior toward players, coaches, and game officials, before, during and following matches.
- Abide by and be bound by JLYSSL's Zero-Tolerance Policy for Physical and Verbal Abuse as interpreted by the JLYSSL Discipline Committee:

JLYSSL Zero-Tolerance Policy for Physical and Verbal Abuse

Any participant in the JLYSSL program (including but not limited to parents, children, coaches, board members, volunteers, and fans) who is physically or verbally abusive toward any person (including but not limited to opposing teams, parents, coaches, referees, players, and spectators) will be suspended:

- First Offense: Two-week suspension. In the event of physical abuse or severe verbal abuse, this may be stepped over for a more severe penalty below. Suspension bars attendance at any JLYSSL matches and sponsored functions including practices. Suspended parents may drop off and pick up children for practices and matches.
- Second Offense: Suspension for remainder of season. Sanctions may be enforced into following season depending on the number of games remaining in the season.
- Third Offense: Lifetime suspension. JLYSSL reserves the right to impose a lifetime suspension on the first (or second) offense depending on the severity of abuse.

As a parent of a JLYSSL player, I agree to discuss these guidelines with my child, and to abide by and be bound by JLYSSL's Zero-Tolerance Policy for Physical and Verbal Abuse as interpreted by the JLYSSL Discipline Committee.
